

Default Question Block

Thank you for your interest in receiving technical assistance (TA) through the Health Equity and Community Design TA Pilot Program. The Vermont Department of Health (VDH) is partnering with the Vermont Department of Housing and Community Development (DHCD) in this pilot to provide extra capacity and resources to tribal groups/communities to develop healthy community design and placemaking plans, ideas, and projects, that center on equity in the built environment.

Equitable Cities and its team of subject matter experts will provide TA for 20 to 35 eligible tribal groups/communities to advance healthy community design and health equity projects in Vermont. We will intentionally eligible tribal groups/communities will tribal groups/communities to benefit populations historically marginalized populations and/or those disproportionately impacted by COVID-19. Such populations will include but are not limited to:

- people of color
- indigenous peoples
- refugees or new Americans

- English language learners/non-English speakers
- LGBTQ+
- people experiencing homelessness
- people who are justice-involved
- people living with disabilities
- people living in rural communities

The TA offered can also help prepare communities that are interested in, but not yet ready to apply for DHCD's Better Places placemaking grants. An application to the Better Places placemaking grants program is not required to receive TA.

To request TA and ensure that the pilot program is able to tailor TA provision to meet your specific community needs, please complete the form. If you have questions or concerns about the TA request or TA pilot program, please contact us at contact@equitablecities.com.
